

RALPH LAUREN INTRODUCES THE NEW STIRRUP BANGLE WATCH: EQUESTRIAN ELEGANCE REIMAGINED

New York, April 2026

Ralph Lauren proudly presents its latest horological creation: the Stirrup Bangle Watch, a sophisticated timepiece that celebrates the brand's enduring equestrian heritage.

This elegant new interpretation features the collection's iconic stirrup-shaped case crafted in polished stainless steel. The pristine white dial showcases bold Roman numerals, creating a perfect balance of classic sophistication and modern aesthetics. The refined design is enhanced by the innovative bangle bracelet construction, which combines elegance with comfortable wearability.

The timepiece is powered by a precise Swiss quartz movement, ensuring reliable timekeeping while maintaining a sleek profile. The seamless integration of the case into the elegant bangle design creates a fluid, jewelry-like aesthetic that transitions effortlessly from day to evening wear.

The sophisticated fusion of Ralph Lauren's equestrian heritage with contemporary watchmaking expertise makes this timepiece a perfect accessory for both formal occasions and everyday elegance.

The bangle design offers a modern take on the traditional watch bracelet, providing both style and versatility.

The Stirrup Bangle Watch will be available starting Spring 2026 at select Ralph Lauren stores worldwide and online at RalphLauren.com.
